"Simply the Best!"

The partners of South Pacific Trading Co. experienced the extraordinary benefits of pure Noni, and knew this amazing juice needed to be available to everyone who desired to improve their overall health.

Many companies offer a diluted, reconstituted Noni juice, blended with other fruit juices and additives. Noni Pacific hit the market in 2002 as the first company to offer pure, 100-percent USDA Certified Organic Noni juice with the leaves infused. The line expanded to include Coconut Pacific, a 100-percent pure USDA certified organic, raw, coconut oil. Noni Pacific and Coconut Pacific are now in health food stores across America and people around the nation enjoy their rich benefits.

SPTC's sister company, Tampa Bay CoPack is able to provide conventional and certified organic contract manufacturing for other companies. South Pacific Trading Company now manufactures its own products, with unlimited expansion capabilities.

SPTC has just expanded their juice line to include the best tasting Noni juice in the world. Through a patented technique, and exclusive to SPTC, the few elements that contribute to Noni's powerful taste are removed while maintaining the nutritional integrity of the Noni juice.

Noni "C"lect and Cherry Noni contain 99 percent and 90 percent Noni juice, respectively, and have a flavor everyone in the family will enjoy. Noni increases the effectiveness of other nutritional supplements. All of the ingredients are Certified Organic and work synergistically to create a product much greater than the sum of its parts.

Only the highest quality raw materials are imported from the healthiest regions of the world to assure that consistently excellent products are delivered to you. Products are laboratory tested prior to acceptance and quality monitored during production to make certain that the highest standards of excellence are maintained. You owe it to yourself to ask for our products by name. Simply the Best!
